AYER'S Sarsaparilla

cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, General Debility, Catarrh, and all disorders caused by a thin and impoverished, or corrupted, condition of the blood; expelling the blood-poisons from the system, enriching and renewing the blood, and restoring its vitalizing power.

During a long period of unparalleled usefulness, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proven its perfect adaptation to the cure of all diseases originating in poor blood and a weakened vitality. It is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other blood-purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potassium and Iron, and is the safest, most reliable, and most economical blood-purifier and blood-food that can be used.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

"AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has cured me of the Inflammatory Rheumatism, with which I have suffered for many years. W. H. MOORE." Durham, Ia., March 2, 1882.

"Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. I have not been troubled with the Rheumatism since. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public. E. F. HARRIS." River St., Buckland, Mass., May 13, 1882.

"Last March I was so weak from general debility that I could not walk without help. Following the advice of a friend, I commenced taking AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and before I had used three bottles I felt as well as I ever did in my life. I have been at work now for two months, and think your SARSAPARILLA the greatest blood medicine in the world. JAMES MAYNARD." 520 West 42d St., New York, July 19, 1882.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blisters, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

NOT THAT WAY.

BY MRS. BROWNING.

Do you know that you have asked for the costliest thing
Ever made by the hand above—
A woman's heart and a woman's life
And a woman's wonderful love?

Do you know that you have asked for this priceless thing
As a child might have asked for a toy—
Demanding what others have died to win
With the reckless dash of a boy?

You have written my lesson of duty out,
Manlike you have questioned me;
Now stand at the bar of my woman's soul
Until I have questioned thee.

You require that your dinner should always be hot.
Your socks and your shirts should be whole;
I require your heart to be true as God's stars,
And pure as heaven your soul.

You require a cook for your mutton and beef,
I require a far better thing;
A seamstress you're wanting for stockings and shirts—
I want a man and a king.

A king for the beautiful realm called home,
And a man that the Maker, God,
Shall look upon as did the first,
And say, "It is very good."

I am fair and young, but the rose will fade
From my soft young cheek one day;
Will you love me then 'mid the falling leaves,
As you did 'mid the bloom of May?

Is your heart an ocean so strong and deep
I may launch my all on its tide?
A loving woman finds heaven or hell
On the day she is made a bride.

I require all things that are good and true,
All things that a man should be;
If you will give this all, I would stake my life
To be all you demand of me.

If you can not do this—a laundress and cook
You can hire with little to pay;
But a woman's heart and a woman's life
Are not to be won that way.

BEEF BUSINESS.

The Cattle Outlook in the West—A Mammoth and Growing Business.

From a special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune, dated at Ogden, Utah, we glean the following interesting facts regarding the cattle and sheep interests in the west: Never in the history of the cattle trade of the northwest has the future of that enterprise looked brighter or more promising than at the present time. Unless there are unprecedented reverses met with in the next three months the results of 1883 will place this country in the very foremost rank of the great stock growing and producing regions of the great west. Great cattle corporations, like the railroad monopolies east, are busily engaged in filling up all unsettled country, and are rapidly swallowing all the smaller fish in the business.

Rand & Co., of Cheyenne, in connection with eastern capitalists, are covering many thousands of acres with their herds in Wyoming, Utah and Idaho.

A. H. Swan, of Swan Bros., has just received a cablegram from parties in Edinburgh, Scotland, who have been negotiating the largest transaction for many years in their trade, requesting him to come immediately, with full power to close the bargain. He will sail next week. This sale is a transfer of 67,000 head of cattle and a few hundred horses—the consideration being $2,500,000. The cattle were sold at a valuation of $35 per head, including calves, heifers, yearlings and upwards, from which the enormous rise in cattle during the last twelve months may be understood, their value a year ago being only $20 to 22.

While traveling from Chicago to the Pacific coast last week, your correspondent was informed by a fellow-traveler—a London capitalist en route to San Francisco—that the English and Scotch bankers had lost faith in all the mining enterprise of the United States, and looked on American railroad securities with distrust, but if a cattle ranch were placed on the Market in either London or Edinburgh it would be gobbled up as quickly as a brook trout would a fly.

The Powder River Cattle company has just filed at Cheyenne and other necessary points its articles of association and incorporation, and also a copy of the English laws under which it is organized. The company has a capital stock of £300,000, or $1,500,000 and includes among its directors the Duke of Manchester, William Tipping, Lord Henry Neville, Earnest Becket Denison and Andrew Whitton, while connected with the enterprise are Alfred Sartoris, C. Fitch Kemp, Morton Frewen and many other wealthy Englishmen. The ranch of the company is on Powder river and Crazy Woman's Fork, and the property is now valued at $258,111. The papers are fiendishly voluminous—not a detail being omitted that English technicality could suggest.

W. P. Noble, of Lander City, one hundred and fifty miles north of Rawlins, on the Union Pacific Railroad, sold out his stock interests last week to A. Gilchrist, H. C. Plunkett, and H. J. Windsor, of Cheyenne, for the sum of $163,000. The cattle number, 7,000, and their range is on the No-Wood river, a treeless stream running through the Northern part of Sweet-water county.

The Swan Brothers, who started in the cattle business fifteen years ago with less than $10,000 are to-day the richest cattle men in Wyoming, their herds being in the central part of the territory. The shipments last season aggregated 12,000 head—amount to over half a million dollars. They own a farm of 3,300 acres adjoining Indianola, Ia., near Des Moines, which is stocked with 1,100 head of cattle, including thoroughbred Herefords and other equally famous breeds. They also have a large number of blooded bulls on their ranches in Wyoming, all of which are imported. They are partnership with the wealthy firm of George F. Morgan & Co. in importing blooded stock, a consignment having been shipped last week of 250 thoroughbred Herefords from Scotland, which will be distributed throughout their vast herd.

Large numbers of young Englishmen are coming to Wyoming, Utah, and Colorado to engage in the cattle and sheep business, a colony having lately settled in southern Utah, where the ranges for sheep are large and sparsely occupied. Many of the cattle men have sold out their interest and are investing in sheep, the last season having been unusually profitable, many of the sheep men having cleared 100 per cent. Owing to the close grazing of the sheep, the ranges are, in some localities, being ruined for the cattle. There is trouble brewing in consequence on parts of the Platte river and other localities. On the head-waters of the Kiowa for a year past the sheep men have received anonymous letters warning them to move their herds out of that section or stand the consequences. No attention was paid to these threats by the sheep men. On Thursday evening last an armed body of masked men rode up to the rancho of Mr. Stephens Holden just after his sheep had been corralled for the night, and after brutally beating the herder and leaving him unconscious upon the ground, they set fire to the cabin and corrals and began deliberately sending volleys of bullets into the herd. Those of the sheep not killed strayed away upon the plains, and at the time of writing had not been found. It is thought to be only the beginning of an open warfare between the cattle and sheep men of that section.

THE Kansas Legislature is called upon to kill a large sized snake in the shape of a bill creating a State Land office and a State Commissioner, 104 inspectors and a small army of clerks. The bill, if enacted, would put the State to an expense of $125,000 a year. Governor Glick is accused of complicity in the job.

LIEUT. COMMANDER GORRINGE, who has lately resigned from the Navy, has made serious charges against Secretary Chandler which he proposes to have investigated by the next Congress. He affirms that the Secretary is the broker and partner of John Roach, the ship builder, and that he has used his position as a Cabinet officer to advance his private fortunes. He resigned his commission as a naval officer that he might be able to speak out freely concerning all the evils and the corruption of the Navy Department.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

From Rev. P. N. GRANGER,

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District.

ST. ALBANS, VT., Jan., 20, 1880.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by a spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell.

STROUGHTON, MASS., March 16, 1880.

B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed two bone spavins with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one, don't know how long the spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off and two for the small one. I have used ten bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me it will be very great.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach a every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargement, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

Send address for illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. ALL DRUGGISTS have it or can get it for you or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. 1870.

And get the wherewithal
That you may at the time be found
Responding to the call.

LANE & WORRICK began this week the construction of a row of frame dwellings on Bridge street for Messrs. J. C. Owens and Thomas A. Ross.

MR. BELL REESE has bought another farm in the Shannon neighborhood. It contains eighty-seven acres and cost $85 an acre. He purchased it of J. H. Arthur.

THE funeral of Dr. John M. Duke will take place from the Church of the Nativity at two o'clock this afternoon. The burial services will be read by Rev. S. B. Alderson, of the Presbyterian church.

A LETTER received by Mrs. S. S. Miner on Monday announced the death, by drowning, at Frankford, Mo., of Elder John B. Corwine, son of the late William Corwine, of this city. No further particulars were given. Mr. Corwine was a nephew of Mrs. Miner.

A hog that had been imprisoned without food for forty-six days, under a building at one of the distilleries below the city was offered for sale yesterday for ten cents to any one who would rescue it. It was gotten out by a colored boy in tolerably good condition, considering its long fast and watery surroundings.

MR. ELI D. ANDERSON, a former citizen of Maysville, died at Greencastle, Ind., on the 25th inst. He was a native of Fleming county and was at one time the Postmaster of Maysville. He removed to Greencastle, about twenty-five years ago and was, at the time of his death, one of most prominent and useful citizens of the town.

MR. WILLIAM MITCHELL, a well known and respected citizen of this county, died on Monday, at his home near Mayslick at the age of about eighty years. The funeral discourse was preached to-day at the Presbyterian Church at Mayslick, by the Rev. Henry M. Scudder, of Elizaville, after which the remains were interred at the cemetery, attended by a large concourse of friends.

THE Grayson correspondent of the Louisville Commercial says:

The verdict of the jury in Craft's case was expected, though if the same trial and same evidence had been taken elsewhere the prisoners would undoubtedly have been acquitted. Not that I do not believe Craft guilty of the horrible crimes perpetrated upon the two innocent girls, but the evidence against him itself was certainly insufficient. There is not the least doubt that all three of the parties—Ellis Craft, William Neal and George Ellis—participated in the horrible affair of that fatal night, but the question of legally proving their guilt will always be a mooted one.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Master Thomas Farley, who has been wrestling with the measles for several weeks past, has gotten the better of his adversary and will soon be able to resume his duties as the Satanic attachment of this office.

MR. J. E. Kellar, of Lexington, who is much interested in the proposed street railway will be in Maysville, to-morrow and will be pleased to meet the friends of the project. He will be at the BULLETIN office at eleven o'clock.

The Suffering Poor.

MAYSVILLE, KY., February 26, 1883.

Rev. A. N. Gilbert—Dear Sir: The recent flood has, we learn, caused much distress and suffering among certain of our citizens who are illy able to bear it, and having heard that you have a very popular lecture called "What Shall we Laugh at?" it has occurred to us, that, if it would be agreeable to you, it would afford our people much pleasure to hear you at our court house in this city, at such time as may suit your convenience, and thus give them an opportunity as well to contribute toward the alleviation of the distress of this city and our neighbor, Aberdeen.

If this shall meet your approbation please notify us and we will make the needful arrangements for the lecture and for the distribution of such sum as may be realized therefrom among all the suffering poor without regard to creed or party.

To the Honorable Horace January, J. J. Wood, Thos. A. Respass and others—Gentlemen: Your polite favor of this date, requesting me to deliver my lecture on "What Shall we Laugh at?" for the benefit of the sufferers in Maysville and Aberdeen, by the recent flood, is received and contents noted.

Nothing could give me more pleasure than to make my first appearance on the lecture platform in Maysville in connection with a cause so meritorious as this, and I shall very gladly comply with your request on next Friday evening, March 2nd at the Court House. I name an early date in order that whatever funds are realized may be early available for those who have suffered. I have the honor to be your obedient servant,

Mr. J. D. Kehoe: We, the undersigned voters of Fern Leaf precinct, approve of your announcement as a candidate for the office of Representative, knowing you to be capable and worthy and having very acceptably filled the office for one term.

Respectfully,

Harry Burgoyne, B. F. McIntire, Mike Moore, Ed. W. Sallee, John Moore, Jas. W. Wood, A. B. McAtee, Chris. Moore, J. C. Norris, A. L. McKibben, Jas. R. Grigsby, Ben W. Wood, Jacob Shelton, Martin Palmer, John D. Thompson, Wm. Brooks, J. E. Babbitt, Bruce Jones, J. H. Lowe, John Barkley, T. W. McLaughlin, James Ennis, Joseph Ennis, Stephen Ennis, Chas. Calvert, P. F. Moore, Powell B. Owens, Tom Moore, J. T. Best, Emmett Turner, Andy Cahill, C. K. Sallee, C. M. Savage, Anthony Shelton, John Wallingford, Sep. Thompson, John Shelton, Cal. McCarty, Chas. Wallingford.

Is your hair turning gray and gradually falling out? Hall's Hair Renewer will restore it to its original color, and stimulate the follicles to produce a new and luxuriant growth. It also cleanses the scalp, eradicates dandruff, and is a most agreeable and harmless dressing.

Four prisoners in the Harrodsburg jail escaped Friday night.

COUNTY POINTS.

WASHINGTON.

Miss Annie Thompson has returned home from a pleasant visit to her friends in Fern Leaf.

Miss Katie Fristoe took up a select school on Monday.

Mrs. J. J. Thompson and her little son, of Fern Leaf, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of A. Burgoyne.

Miss Tina Bledsoe, of Maysville, is the guest of Mrs. Robert Barnes.

The choir meeting will be held at Mr. Wm. Rhode's, Friday evening.

Miss Mattie Cummings, of Maysville, returned home Wednesday, after spending a few days with her friend Miss Nannie Gault.

GUESS WHO.

TWO LICK.

Good work horses are in demand and bring fair prices.

Movers are on a strike—striking out for other quarters.

Mr. Greenbury Gallagher's sale was well attended and everything sold well.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Uncle Ben Berry, of Bridgeville. Not much hope of his recovery.

There was a supper at the school house on Tuesday night of last week, the proceeds for the purchase of a stove and other necessary furniture. The net proceeds was about $16.

Farmers will be considerably behind with their spring work. No plowing has been done yet, owing to the continuous bad weather.

HOMO.

LEWISBURG.

Basil Berry, who volunteered to accompany the Emmet Rifles, of Maysville, to Grayson, is at home, looking in de and hearty, and expresses himself as being well pleased with the trip and the military in general.

On last Saturday night, at their regular weekly meeting, "The Lewisburg Reading Club" elected Dr. Wm. P. Dobyns, President, and J. Arthur Berry, Secretary, and donated the surplus in the hands of the Treasurer, amounting to about eight dollars, to the Newport sufferers by the recent flood.

E. Berry & Son, who have been making preparations to prize tobacco, will probably have their house and screw in readiness this week.

Mr. James T. Marshall is building a tobacco prizing warehouse on the land of his brother, Ed. Marshall, near the K. C. R. R., which would have been finished by this time except for the floods interfering with his getting lumber.

There has been but little tobacco sold in this neighborhood up to this time, owing to the inability of the buyers and holders to agree as to price. The following are the only sales coming to the notice of your correspondent: John Ross to A. H. Calvert, price ten and three, Jno. Mitchell to A. H. Calvert, price twelve and five, Noah Owens to James T. Marshall, price ten and three, J. M. Alexander to T. L. Best, price twelve, seven and five.

Mr. A. K. Marshall has received from the vicinity of Paris between thirty and forty thousand pounds of tobacco by the K. C. R. R., bulked in the car, at an average of something over ten cents a pound.

Mr. Zach Worthington and wife were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Rice, on last Sunday.

Miss Sallie J. Kilpatrick, who was detained at home from her school near Washington last week by sickness, we are glad to report, was able to resume her duties in the school room last Monday morning.

Miss Ida Carpenter, of Fleming, accompanied by her cousin, Mr. Simon Carpenter, of Ohio, visited the Misses McIlvaine for several days the latter part of last week.

On last Friday night the spacious apartments of "Cottage Cliff," the beautiful residence of Mr. A. K. Marshall, were thrown open for the reception of the members of "The Lewisburg Glee Club," and a few invited guests. The following persons were present and masked and appropriately attired to impersonate the characters as below:

Miss Bettie Berry, oddity.
Miss Alice Berry, gypsy.
Miss Jessie Bateman, peasant girl.
Miss Blanch Storde, peasant girl.
Miss Sallie Kilpatrick, sister of charity.
Miss Maggie Bateman, sister of charity.
Miss Fannie Masterson, morning.
Miss Annie Gaither, red riding hood.
Miss Ida Carpenter, mother Hubbard.
Miss Annie Wirt, Dolly Varden.
Miss Imogene Arthur, Spanish girl.
Miss Cricket Ball, Irish woman.
Miss Annie Berry, summer.
Miss May Marshall, the little widow.
Mr. J. Arthur Berry, George Washington.
Miss Malinda McIlvaine, Martha Washington.
Miss Bettie McIlvaine, Topsy.
Mr. Thos. McIlvaine, Jerry Green, colored, Topsy's escort.

Mr. Basil S. rode, swell.
Mr. Frank Kilpatrick, Indian.
Mr. W. W. McIlvaine, Indian.
Mr. Chas. Bollinger, Indian.
Mr. Wallace Chappell, Indian.
Mr. Jas. Ball, clown.
Mr. Wm. Chappell, clown.
Mr. Wm. Bateman, Indian Chief.
Mr. Jas. Bollinger, baboon.
Mr. Ed. Tuggle, dead beat.
Mr. Tom. Anderson, man in moon.
Mr. John Dorsey, Oscar Wilde.
Mr. Henry Pogue, gentleman.
Mr. Johnson Collins, Sing Sing convict.
Mr. Ed. Bullock, Humpty Dumpty.
Mr. Jas. Owens, Grayson Guard.
Mr. Eddie Parker, Grayson guard.
Mr. Daniel Writ, Grayson guard.
Mr. Mat. Skinner, Grayson guard.
Mr. Chas. Marshall, grass "widder."

The following persons present were not masked: Miss Hattie McAtee, Miss Lucy Owens, Miss Mary Wallis, Mrs. Alex. Duke, Mrs. K. A. Calvert, Miss Sallie Keys, and Messrs. S. M. Storde, Wm. McAtee, W. T. Berry, Samuel Dorsey, Wm. Tuggle, Tom. Tuggle and Simon Carpenter. The most maskers were so successfully disguised it was impossible for your reporter to recognize scarcely any of them until they unmasked for refreshments.

NUM SKULL.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Massie Beasley is quite ill.

Misses Maud and Carrie Wilson are visiting friends in Ripley.

Prof. Stableton paid Manchester a visit last week.

Miss Lottie Sorries is convalescing from her recent illness.

Rev. S. B. Alderson has been assisting Rev. Rice in a protracted meeting.

Mr. Titus Ellis, the amiable typo of the Republican, has taken headquarters at the Toler House, where he still retains a congenial smile for his friends.

Mr. W. Petit, with his "bonny bride," were guests at the Toler House last week.

Miss Valenia Creekbaum, who has charge of the colored school in this place, visited her home in Ripley, Saturday.

The Aberdeen correspondent of the Republican, in Saturday's paper, solicits help for the sufferers from the flood in this place. We have but few who are unable to stand their small losses, and the poor have been liberally helped by our own good citizens, who are ever ready to help in case of need.

JUDGE BROWN at the conclusion of the trial at Grayson, telegraphed the following to Governor Blackburn:

"GRAYSON, KY., Feb. 23.—To his Excellency, L. P. Blackburn, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky—Dear Sir: The trial of the Commonwealth of Kentucky against Ellis Craft has been completed. The jury returned their verdict of guilty of the charge in the indictment and fixed his punishment at death. It is with pleasure I announce to you, as Commander-in-Chief of the militia of the State, that Col. John R. Allen and the officers and privates of the State Guards who have acted as aid to the civil authorities have performed their duty. They have had a trying time, owing to the bad weather, and their presence has resulted in peace and good order. They deserve the thanks of all law-abiding citizens. The citizens of Carter county have shown marked respect to them, recognizing the fact that the law must be maintained. None regret the necessity of calling for their aid more than I do, and hope for those who have hitherto been engaged in trying to subvert the law that the sad lesson that has befallen us by the action of the mob last fall will never occur again; that they may never by an unlawful move sacrifice the good, law-abiding people, and that there shall be no further necessity for any further demand upon your excellency to uphold and enforce the law. Yours, obediently,

GEORGE N. BROWN,

Judge of Sixteenth Judicial District."

Notice to Ministers.

At the last meeting of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Louisville, it was resolved that all ministers of the State, out of Louisville, be requested, through the press, to preach temperance sermons on Sunday, April the first. And that they be further asked to report compliance with this request to Miss Dora Wheat, Corresponding Secretary, Y. W. C. T. U., 1026 Seventh street, Louisville, Ky.

Many ministers of the Metropolis, at the suggestion of the Young Woman's Union, preached such sermons on the Sunday before Christmas.

Mrs. Jas. A. Leech,
President Y. W. C. T. U.

Origin of Popular Phrases.

"A Rolling Stone Gathers No Moss."—This quotation appears in Gosson's "Ephemerides of Philao," as "a rowling stone gathers no moss." Thomas Tusser, in "Good Husbandry Lessons," has "The stone that is rolling can gather no moss."

"Better Late Than Never."—This proverbialism originated with Thomas Tusser, author of "Five Hundred Points of Good Husbandry," who put it into his "An Habitation Enforced." Tusser's writings are prolific of expressions which have long since become proverbial.

"No Royal Road to Geometry."—Euclid, who opened a school of mathematics at Alexandria, in the reign of the First Ptolemy, was once asked by that sovereign whether he could not explain his art to him in a more compendious way, to which Euclid made the celebrated answer that there was no royal road to geometry.

"The Nine Worthies."—The historical personages designated "The Nine Worthies" were three Gentiles—Hector, son of Priam; Alexander the Great and Julius Caesar; three Jews, Joshua, conqueror of Canaan; David, King of Israel, and Judas Maccabeus; and three Christians, Arthur, King of Britain, Charlemagne and Godfrey of Bouillon.

"The Bed of Procrustes."—Procrustes, called by Parosians Polypemon, was, in mythology, a robber of ancient Greece, who placed on an iron bed the travelers who fell into his hands, which their stature was made to fit by cutting off the projecting limbs, or by stretching them to suit its dimensions; whence the metaphorical expression of "The Bed of Procrustes."

"City of Magnificent Distances."—A popular name given to the City of Washington, the capital of the United States, from the fact of its being laid out on a very large scale. The entire site is traversed by two sets of streets, from seventy to 100 feet wide, at right angles to one another, the whole again intersected obliquely by fifteen avenues from 130 to 160 feet wide.

"Sleeveless Errand."—This phrase occurs in Heywood's Proverbs, 1546. The origin of the word sleeveless, in the sense of unprofitable, has defied the most careful research at the hands of Sharman and other noted philologists. It is frequently found, says the former, allied to other substantives. Bishop Hall speaks of the "sleeveless tale of transubstantiation," and Milton writes of a "sleeveless reason," Chaucer uses it in the Testament of Love.

"Drawn and Quartered."—In the statutes of Great Britain the punishment for treason still is that the offender be drawn to the place of execution on a hurdle; that he be hanged by the neck until he be dead; that his head be severed from his body, and that body be divided into four parts, or quartered. The sovereign may, and now certainly would, by a warrant under the sign-manual, countersigned by a principal Secretary of State, change the sentence into beheading. In the case of females, the quartering is dispensed with. From this statute rose the expression "drawn and quartered."

"We Recognize a Hercules from the Size of the Foot."—Pythagoras ingeniously calculated the great stature of Hercules by comparing the length of various stadia in Greece. All these courses were nominally 600 feet in length; but Hercules was said to have measured out the stadium at Olympia with his own feet, while the others followed a standard of later days. The philosopher argued that by how much the Olympic course exceeded all others in length by the said proportion did the foot of Hercules exceed that of men of a subsequent age; and, again, by the same proportion must the stature of Hercules have been pre-eminent.

—The peak in Virgil, Cortland County, on which the State survey station is located, is the highest point of land in New York State, it being 2,100 feet above the level of the sea, while the highest point of the Catskills is only 2,000 feet above the level. The point is fully 1,000 feet above the level of Marathon village, which is 1,100 feet above the sea level.
